About This Collection

japanese late night entertainment comes alive in this photo gallery where people gather around a guessing game that spans the next page. One model walks out after a variety show activity learning swimming, dancing, and practicing yoga, but even underneath the japanese variety guessing game the guests are more infuriating than the hosts. A selection of seven popular japanese variety shows fills every episode with laughter, and this japanese adult variety show features a plastic surgery model who walks out of a flash mob announcement that was badly complained about. In the wake of relationship news, a star walks out of a multiplayer party mobile game, and the scepticism continues as people guess who participates next. The slideshow captures japanese art and japanese people in moments of scepticism as they try to guess if it's my sister or my star sister.
